FLUID DESIGN

Designed without compromise, the KWC Canyon brings geometric aspects with minimalist design into the bath. Complete with electric sensors, an LED light band that reads from blue to red depending on water temperature illuminates the bold, open water flow. The electronic touch pad controls on/off and temperature. Also offered in a tub spout, the completely concealed mixing valve allows the linear point to create a beautiful wide and sumptuous waterfall effect. For more information visit kwcfaucets.com.

AT HOME LAVEN

Turn your bathroom into a comfort zone

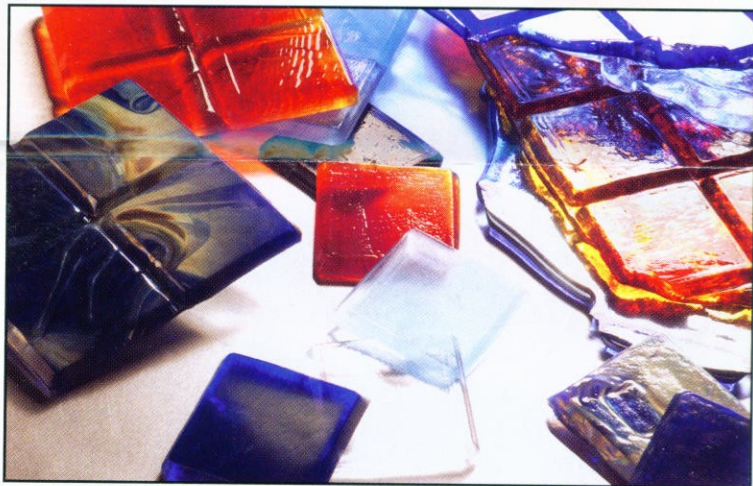

D

Bathrooms are more than just a place to spend a few minutes showering or brushing teeth, they are a woman's sanctuary. For many, it is a place of beauty and serenity that provides a retreat for escape of the daily hustle and bustle. We encourage you to indulge in some of these products to make your bathroom seem like a day at the spa and your comfort zone. —R.B.

ALLURING ALLOY

The ultimate escape to mid-19th century France awaits as you step into Water Monopoly's romantic copper bath. The stunning tub is an exact replica found in châteaux and large country homes, managing to fuse history and practicality into a room of timeless luxury. SINK INTO THE OLD WORLD

The bold look of Kohler has done it again. Take the Orient Express into bathroom beauty with this charming sink. The Garden Bandana print is based on the pattern of a porcelain dish from the Qing dynasty in 16th century China, whose style was also popular in late 19th century America. The intricately delicate pattern of chrysanthemums, peonies and foliage are available in red or blue. For more information visit us.kohler.com.

STEAM DREAM
